C. PROTECTION BRANCH. 28 JUL 1920

18645.4

6 APR 1920

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness The Maharaja of Mysore,

BANGALORE.

The humble petition of the residents of Nelavangala Taluk, Tyamagondlu and other places of the Taluk,

Most Respectfully Showeth:

1. That the petitioners most respectfully beg leave to submit that they have been praying from a very long time the Benign Government for a Munsiff's Court established in the Nelavangala Town. The matter was also pressed both in the Taluk and District Conferences many a time, yet to our great misfortune their prayer has not met with success yet.

2. That the petitioners being litigants, they find it extremely hard to go to Doddaballapur to attend the Court, because, the railway connection is not convenient, as the train arrives at Doddaballapur at 1.30 or 2 in the noon and by the time the petitioners go to Court, which is also a very great distance, the cases will be called and closed. To avoid this the petitioners will have to go and remain there a day earlier which is highly impossible because they are mostly merchants and men of verious professions.

3. That it is very difficult to find convenience of any kind at Doddaballapur. Water is hopeless, meals next to it and on the other hand it is a very sickly place. To go by carts instead of Railway, the road is very unsafe and this trial has also proved a heavy loss to many both in life and property.

4. That most of the cases on the file of the Munsiff

Munsiff of Doddaballapur are of Nelavangala Taluk. Even the Magadi people had prayed the Benign Government to have a Civil Court at Nelamangala. While there was one in the Nelamangala Town, it was a great boon to many and its removal to a sickly, inconvenient and remote corner Dodballapur has proved a curse on the poor and helpless litigants instead of a boon to them.

5. That the petitioners are confident that the Government are always bent upon helping the Subjects of His Highness the Maharaja in all possible ways, and as such, they most respectfully and humbly pray that their untold miseries may kindly be removed by establishing a Munsiff's Court at Nelamangala.

6. That the petitioner further beg to submit that their humble prayer may graciously be considered by the Government before the reopening of the Civil Courts after the Summar - Vacation and favourable orders granting their prayer be passed since the question is not only pending from a long time but - as their difficulties have been increased and also are on the increase every day.

Soliciting the favour of early orders in the matter in the interests of justice and mercy, and praying for an endorsement,

We beg to remain,

Your most obedient servants,

N. Timpate Rao. Shop Keeper
